Article Writing Guidelines:

- Clear writing depends on clear thinking. Please think and prepare an outline about the article before writing the article.
- The article should be written in such a way that it represents an analysis done by the author and not mere reproduction of facts and figures.
- All the facts, figures and tables should be appropriately cited, unless created by the author.
- APA style of referencing may be followed in all articles. Please see how the citation reads.
- The size of the article may be restricted to a maximum of 5 pages, with font size 12 (Times New Roman and multiple 1.5 line spacing; paragraph spacing: 6 points before and after).
- Please complete the article within given timeline and send to the journal for review to the NAAA/editors/ their nominee by email.
- After receipt of the comments of the peer-reviewer, the revisions may be carried out within two weeks and resent to the NAAA/editors/ their nominee by email.
